

Privacy Policy

Last Modified: July 31, 2018

1. Introduction. This Privacy Policy describes how Mo Possibilities, Inc. (referred to as “we”, “our”, “us”) collects, uses, and stores your information. This privacy policy, together with our Terms of Use (“Terms of Use”) separately agreed to you and incorporating this policy, establishes the legal terms and conditions of the agreement between us governing the submission of the information and our use of it. All capitalized terms used in this policy and not otherwise defined here will have the meanings assigned to the in the Terms of Use. By submitting the information, you agree to be bound by this policy, User (“you”) allow the information to be used in the manner specified in this policy.

2. Information We Collect. We collect information in two ways, directly from your input into the Website, and automatically.

2.1 Information Provided By You. We may collect and store any personal information you provide to us. This may include identifying information, such as your name, address, email address and telephone number, and, if you transact business with us, financial information. If you contact us, we will keep an internal record. From time-to-time, we may provide you with the opportunity to participate in contests or surveys. If you choose to participate, we may request certain personal information from you. Participation in these contests or surveys is completely voluntary and you therefore have a choice whether or not to disclose the requested information. The requested information typically includes contact information (such as name and address), and demographic information (such as zip code).

2.2 Information Collected Automatically.

(a) We collect non-personally identifiable information automatically for the primary purpose of customizing the Website, understanding how it is used, and preventing misuse. For example, when you use access the Website, we automatically record information from your device, its software, and your activity using the Website. This may include, but is not limited to the date and time of your access to the Website, your device’s internet protocol (“IP”) address, geographical information, device type, your mobile carrier, date and time stamps associated with transactions, system configuration information, metadata concerning files included in the information submitted to us, and other interactions with the Website.

(b) Some devices allow applications to access real-time location-based information (for example, GPS or sensor data from your device that may provide information on nearby Wi-Fi access points and cell towers). In addition, some of the information we collect from you, for example IP address, can sometimes be used to approximate a device’s location. If you do not wish us to receive this information, please configure your devices not to share it.

(c) We use mobile device IDs (the unique identifier assigned to a device by the manufacturer), or Advertising IDs (for iOS 6 and later) to recognize you. We do this to track your use of the Website. Device IDs cannot be deleted, but Advertising IDs can be reset in “Settings” on your iPhone. Ad companies also use device IDs or Advertising IDs to track your use, track the number of ads displayed, measure ad performance and display ads that are more relevant to you. Analytics companies use device IDs to track information about usage.

3. Use of your Information.

3.1 In General. We may use information that we collect about you to (a) to manage the Website and our business, (b) perform research and analysis about your use of, or interest in, our products, services, or content, or products, services or content offered by others, (c) communicate with you by email, postal mail, telephone and/or mobile devices about products or services that may be of interest to you either from us or other third parties, (d) develop and display content and advertising tailored to your interests on our site and other sites, including providing our advertisements to you when you visit other sites, (e) perform ad tracking and website or mobile application analytics, (f) enforce or exercise any rights in our terms and conditions, and (g) perform functions as otherwise described to you at the time of collection.

3.2 Third-Party Service Providers. In all circumstances, we may perform the functions described above directly or use a third-party vendor to perform these functions on our behalf who will be obligated to use your personal information only to perform services for us and only in conformance with this privacy policy.

4. Sharing or Disclosing your Information.

4.1 Personal Information. We do not share your personal information with others except as indicated below or when we inform you and give you an opportunity to opt out of having your personal information shared.

(a) Service Providers. We may share information, including personal information, with third parties that perform certain services on our behalf. These services may include fulfilling orders, providing user service and marketing assistance, performing business and sales analysis, ad tracking and analytics, supporting our website functionality, and supporting surveys and other features offered through the Website. These service providers may have access to personal information needed to perform their functions but are not permitted to share or use such information for any other purposes and are not permitted to use the information in violation of this privacy policy.

(b) Third parties

(i) When you click-through on third-party offers featured on the Website, we may share personal information with the businesses with which we partner to offer you the applicable products or services. When you elect to engage in a particular merchant's offer or program, you authorize us to provide your email address and other information to that third party. To opt-out of some cookies that may be set by third party data partners, please go to <http://www.aboutads.info/choices>. We may share your information with a third-party application or a third-party merchant services provider or other reseller with your consent, for example when you choose to access the Website through such an application or are provided with access to the Website through such a third-party merchant services firm, including Google and Facebook.

(ii) The Website may include, from time to time, social media features, such as Facebook and Twitter buttons and widgets, such as "share" buttons or interactive mini-programs that run on our site. These features may collect your IP address, which page you are visiting on our site, and may store information to enable the feature to function properly. Social media features and widgets are either hosted by a third party or hosted directly on the Website.

(iii) Your interactions with third parties through the Website are governed by the privacy policies, if any, of those third parties. We are not responsible for what those third parties do with your information. So you should make sure you trust those third parties and that they have privacy policies acceptable to you.

4.2 Other Information. Automatically collected non-personally identifiable information may be aggregated and disclosed without restriction. We may aggregate your information with that of other users for any purpose, including analyzing and improving Company's services to all users and we may share that aggregate information publicly, including to show trends about the general use of the Website with the press, in our marketing materials or with our business partners, so long as we do not in the process disclose to any third parties any of your personally identifiable information in a manner that is readily personally identifiable to you. We may collate or connect non-personally identifiable information with your personal information, in which case the resulting personally identifiable information will be treated as personal information.

4.3 Other Disclosures.

(a) We may disclose to outside parties information you submit and other information about you that we collect when we have a good faith belief that disclosure is reasonably necessary to (i) comply with applicable Law; (ii) protect the safety of any person from death or serious bodily injury; (iii) prevent fraud or abuse of us or our users and users; (iv) to protect our property rights; or (v) enforce the Terms of Use, including investigation of potential violations. If we provide your information to a law enforcement agency as set forth above, we will remove encryption before providing it.

(b) If we are involved in a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of our assets, your information may be transferred as part of that transaction, but we will notify you (for example, via email and/or a prominent notice on our website) of any change in control or use of your information or if either become subject to a different privacy policy. We will also notify you of choices you may have regarding the information.

5. Accessing Your Information.

5.1 When you register on the Website, you consent to receive email messages from us. At any time, you can choose to no longer receive commercial or promotional emails from us. You also will be given the opportunity, in any commercial email that we send to you, to opt out of receiving such messages in the future. It may take up to 10 days for us to process an opt-out request. We may send you transactional and relationship emails, such as service announcements, administrative notices, and surveys, without offering you the opportunity to opt out of receiving them. Please note that opting out of receipt of promotional email communications, will only affect future activities or communications from us. If we have already provided your information to a third party (such as a service provider) before you have changed your preferences or updated your information, you may have to change your preferences directly with that third party.

5.2 Most web browsers are set to accept cookies by default. If you prefer, you can usually choose to set your browser to remove or reject browser cookies.

6. Security. We use reasonable methods, consistent with industry practices, to protect the confidentiality of your information, including administrative, physical and technical methods. Information you submit to or receive from our Service is sent using an encrypted TLS (SSL) connection. No method of transmission over the internet is completely secure and no method of protecting information is completely secure. Therefore we cannot and do not guarantee the security of your information.

7. Our Policy Toward Children. The Website is not directed or available to persons under 13. We do not knowingly collect information from children under 13. If a parent or guardian becomes aware that his or her child has submitted information in violation of our policies and has provided us with information without their consent, he or she should contact us at info@drmobsx.com. If we become aware that a child under 18 has provided us with information, we will take steps to delete that information from our records, subject to any retention reasonably necessary to comply with our legal obligations, meet regulatory requirements, resolve disputes, prevent fraud and abuse or enforce the Terms of Use.

8. Changes to our Privacy Policy. We may make changes to this Privacy Policy from time to time. If this Privacy Policy is modified, we will update this page and the revision date.

9. Contacting Us. To ask questions about this Privacy Policy, our privacy practices, your information, or anything relating to the Website, including requests that we unsubscribe you from communications, you may email us at our user contact email: info@drmobsx.com.
